

THE LOST CHILD

- MULK RAJ ANAND

A Power Point Presentation by:

A. LATHA

- ❖ It was spring time and the people in colorful attire were going to the fair .
- ❖ A child along with his parents was going to the fair and was very excited and happy.

➤ The child was fascinated by the stalls of toys and sweets. Though his father got angry, but his mother pacified him & diverted his attention towards other things.

✓ The child moved forward but once again lagged behind because his eyes were caught by one thing or the other every now & then.

- “I want burfi” but he did not wait for his parent’s reply as he know very well that his parents will never agree to buy burfi for him.
- They would say, he was greedy, therefore he kept moving.

- Then he witnessed beautiful garlands but didn't ask for it.
- Then he saw balloon, but he knew very well that his parents will say that he was too old to play with balloon, so he walked away.
- Then he saw a snake charmer, a roundabout swing.

- Now he stopped to ask his parents the permission to enjoy the swing, but there was no reply.
- Neither his father, nor his mother was there.
- Now the child realized that he was lost.

➤ He ran here & there but with no fruitful result.

➤ The place was too crowded. He got terrified.

- Suddenly a kind hearted man took him up his arms and tried to console him.
- He asked him if he would like to have a joy ride.
- But the child sobbed , “I want my father, I want my mother. ”

- The man offered him sweets, balloons and garland. But the child kept on sobbing, “I want my father, I want my mother .”

The End